Event Objectives

The Rosalie Premier League has been established to provide touch players with the opportunity to participate in a high-quality club-based competition and bring elite touch players to Rosalie on a weekly basis. Teams do not have to be affiliate based providing them the opportunity to pick the best of the best and compete in Perth's richest club-based competition. The competition also runs throughout the duration of Touch Football WA's Super League Series and in the leadup to State Championships providing players, coaches and referees the opportunity to maintain an elite level of performance.
